WHAT DOES FLAGSHIP HARBOR ADVISORS, LLC DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons we choose to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who We Are

Who is providing this notice?

Flagship Harbor Advisors, LLC

What We Do

How do we protect your personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How do we collect your personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Enter into an advisory contract
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio

Why can't you limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when you limit sharing for an account you hold jointly?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise.
